“ Auntie Alice If I could write a story it would be the best one ever told, Of a kind and loving Aunt that had a heart of gold. A Lady of extreme strength, Courage and Love, Who was kind and beautiful and now free as a dove. You have suffered auntie Alice long enough, but through it all you've always been brave and tough. The battle you fought was long and hard, But its okay now auntie alic your now with God. You will always be remembered every single day, for the kindess things you've done and the things you would say. Youv'e taken your place in heaven right where you belong, With Uncle Jim and Uncle Bob, Nono and Nana your Mom. And as we all know we need to be strong, through all of our family your memeory will live on. You've always done your part to keep our family together that's why you will remain in our hearts espically mine Forever. Love you Auntie Alice.
