“ I met Amanda in 1987. I appreciated Amanda's unique organizational skills and her ability to keep our office running smoothly. She always called out to me for help, whenever she would frequently get her keys stuck in the door. I will miss her sense of humor and how she always decorated the office for the holidays, which was appreciated. She often shared stories of her childhood which kept me laughing. I teased her about wanting to be a model, so she would come into my office and tell me that she should have been one. She had a strong faith and loved her family. She was a true co-worker and most of all, I considered Amanda my friend. Amanda, you fought a good fight and may you rest in peace. God bless you and your family.
