

Mrs. Amelia Rufina Fields

July 10, 1938 - May 11, 2013

Amelia joined her loving parents John and Isabel Ricafort, her brother John Jr. and her grandfather Tito C. Bingil in comfort and peace. She passed away surrounded by her loving family; her sons Donald (Melissa) Fields and John (Deborah Zell) Fields, grandchildren Donald (Rachel), Stacey (Jermaine), Erica (Jaime), Alex, and great grandchildren Nathan, Natalia, Jakai, Amelia, Mateo, Manaiya. She was a beloved aunt to Billy, John Raymond, Vince and Vance, many grandnephews and grandnieces, cousin to Adele and many others, and dear friend to Betty, Gail, Maxine, Joanne (goddaughter) and many gal pals.

Amelia is most remembered for her grace, deep kindness and quiet strength. She cared deeply about raising a strong family grounded in values and held together by love. She was a sweet soul to all who were blessed to meet her. Amelia will be deeply missed and always cherished.

Amelia is a native San Franciscan, Balboa graduate ('56) and proudly carried on her Filipino heritage through service to the Gran Oriente Filipino. She was a dedicated employee of 25 years to Millberry Union at UCSF and in her final days was compassionately and kindly cared for by UCSF and Hospice by the Bay.
