

Anna Cavagnaro

May 1, 1916 - March 6, 2009

Anna was a woman of few words. She loved her family more than life itself. She'd tell you she had a good life and is now happily with Paul again as she's missed him so much these last 18 years after 50 years of marriage. Her family: sons Rich (Ellen) and Jim (Rose), grandchildren Paula and Gene, sister Tillie, sister-in-law Elsie, and several nieces and nephews will miss her sweet smile, humble generosity, quiet laugh and kitchen specialties. She'd tell you we couldn't have loved her more. Private Services, with burial at Holy Cross. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to your own personal charity in Anna's name; or, a donation to Special Olympics, Southern California, make checks payable to SOSC - San Diego County, 10977 San Diego Mission Road, San Diego, Ca 92108; or, a remembrance card to the family sent care of the chapels of Valente Marini Perata & Co., 4840 Mission St., SF, 94112. Services: Private Funeral Service Cemetery: Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery 1500 Mission Road Colma, CA 94014 (map/driving directions)
