“ On behalf of Father Eugene Tungol, Pastor, Church of the Epiphany, the Epiphany community and Grief Ministers, we offer our condolences to Bernaldo's family. Because we have the assurance of our faith, no image is as powerful, as consoling, and as accurate in terms of picturing what happened to Bernaldo when he died, and awoke to eternal life. When Bernaldo died, he died into the arms of our God and surely he was received with as much love, gentleness, and tenderness as he received in the arms of his mother at birth; surely even safer than when he was born on earth.

Remy Wilson, Grief Minister, Church of the Epiphany
