

Bernarda Calagos

April 2, 1920 - October 15, 2009

At rest in San Francisco October 15, 2009. Loving wife of the late Tony Calagos. Wonderful mother to Joyce Calagos. Dear sister of Marcela Lacanlale. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews and their families. Born in Makabebe, Pampanga, Philippines, but raised in Umingan, Pangasinan . At the age of 16 she was beauty queen of her High School and of her town, Umingan. She taught first grade for a couple of years before she and Tony met during WWII. They were married in 1946 before Tony brought her and Joyce to San Francisco in 1948. She was an active member of the first Filipino organization at the Church of the Epiphany. She traveled widely with Tony every year for twenty years, In 2005 Bernie received a forty year veteran certificate and pin from the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers based on her work with Schlage Lock and Key Company.
