“ Well, Tia, it has now been a little over two weeks since you left us. I find myself a little lost and it sometimes reminds me of when mom left us over twenty-two years ago. I think of something I want to share with you and then I remember all over again that it will have to wait until I see you again. Thank you for being there for me from the beginning when you helped our mother to raise us. Thank you for coming over to stay with me to yet again help out with Morgan! Thank you for being patient with my husband's language barrier. He always tried to communicate with you and include you in some of our vacation trips. Thank you for showing me how to cook long distance when I first went away to school and I would call you to ask about how to make "pollo tapado!" I will forever keep you in my prayers.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I strongly believe, all who knew her, that she was not only a tia to us, but a second mother. All have said about the giving heart she had, and yes, tia Carmen was that. A very sweet person. Filled with love and support for all her kids (big and small). She was a person who never lost track of where she was from. To all of us, she was a blessing. Ever since I remembered her, she always had nice gesture, a candy, a bill or a little of food to give. She was my hero!! And she will be my hero for always. Rest in peace my dear tia Carmen. Our love will last forever!!!

“ I remember her watching us kids after school sometimes since we lived across the street. She always offered us gallo pinto, tortillas and queso as snacks. I loved being there and always felt loved by her. As many of you know, I can't speak spanish yet we always had a way of communicating with each other. Tia Carmen always had a loving hug for us as kids. She would send us home with Pasteles and sweet goodies. She will be greatly missed. She was a beautiful person with a beautiful heart.

“So many memories of Tia. Thinking way back when I had Natalie, and I told her the hospital was trying to kill me with their foods, there came tia, with the gallo pinto, tortillas, queso y carnita asada. and she did the same with my other 2 kids as well. As usual, Tia always thinking to comfort us, never selfish, always giving us her unconditional love. Always being there for us in the good and bad times . Yes, we will all miss her very much. Descansa en paz Tia. Con todo amor.”

“I, like "Lorry", have many memories of Tia. She opened up my very 1st bank account, she bought my first dining room set when I got married, she gave so much of herself. she showed me how to cook and tried to teach me how to a more patient person. She cared for my children when I was up all night, I loved her so much and will miss her sense of humor and presence. Rest in peace Tia.

“I have so many memories of Tia Carmen. My first memory is when I went to Nicaragua with her I was 4 years old. I totally trusted her.
