Our profound condolences to all his family, though there are no words to convey his departure, it is now a time to celebrate Curtis's life. We can all attest to the numerous years of how Curtis embraced and lived his life to the fullest.

Everyone who knew him, has Curtis stories about how he was genuinely generous, with a passion in all he did. Curtis loved to sing, dance, as he indulged joyfully with his love of the best meals where ever he was.

Curtis was blessed with numerous gifts, he loved to take beautiful photos, his cars were always spotless, as were his homes. He always made a fashion statement and he would make everyone around him laugh with his endless heartfelt stories, as he told them with his great soulful laughter. He knew how to hold court and entertain everyone, to the point of making you laugh, even when you did not want to.

He was a perfectionist and highly skilled in all he did. When you see the San Francisco skyline he worked on numerous of those awesome buildings. Curtis's love life touched everyone who knew him. He is home in the arms of his beloved Mother Angie, Auntie Flo and once again enjoying great stories with his brother Kieth. All who knew you will miss you, though will live on in the hearts of all your family members and dear friendships you built through out your years here among us. RIP Curtis...
