“It was such a shock when my parents told me about your passing Dave. You were my first serious relationship and the first person to really change my life dramatically. A little over 6 years we were together and not one dull day we shared. Even though there were several rough patches I stood by your side in hopes that I could help you find your way back to a positive path. With everything that happened between us I want you to know that I never hated you... I thank you. You helped me grow in so many ways. I forgive you for everything and I will miss you. I am truly warmed to know that you did get a chance to find your way back down the positive path and experience true happiness. I know you'll stop by to check up on everyone and I look forward to updating you. You will always be missed but never forgotten.

“ I have many happy memories of Dave. He was my first boyfreind in high school and became a part of my family. I experienced a lot of new things with him. My sister and brothers have very fond memories of him too. He never minded when my mom would force me to take my brothers or sisters with me. His company was always very enjoyable. Life took us on two differeny roads.. I will keep him in prayers. My condelensces to him mom Gloria and his family.

With Love,

Rosario Alvarez

“ I wish Heaven had a phone so I could hear your voice and Laugh again, I thought of you today,but that is nothing new! I thought of you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and pictures in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part...God has you in his arms. I have you in my Heart. Repost if you have someone in Heaven!!! Rest in Peace Mom!!! I have Oceans of love and miss you mountains!!

“ Words cannot express the sadness I feel in knowing that you are no longer with us.

I was lucky to have you as my God-brother and know that the bond we shared will never be broken.

I pray for you and your family and know that one day we will meet again.

With lots of love,

Your God-sister, Vero
