

Eduarda Zarate Pasalo

October 13, 1920 - October 26, 2015

Eduarda "Inday" Pasalo was born to Rufino Zarate and Maria Asuncion Barrer in Babasit, Manaoag, Pangasinan, Philippines. 95 years and just 13 days later, she passed away in Honolulu, HI joining her husband Juan Del Campo Pasalo, daughter Emma, and grandson Joe Mari in heaven. There, they will no doubt dance as they loved to do at the Manaoag Residents of CA Association and Senior Center events where Eduarda and Juan were waltz champions.

Eduarda is survived by her children Linda Bernabe, Leticia Ordonio, Ophelia Salinas, Salvador, Arthur, Mario, Winston and Ted Pasalo and their spouses. Eduarda was a proud grandmother of 16 and great-grandmother of 15.

“ Mommy is one of the greatest gifts that God has given us with our family. Her companionship during her lifetime has made us realize that life is worth living for. We saw in her a serious & strong determination to raise her children successfully in life. We take pride to say that her mission here on earth had been satisfactorily fulfilled & totally accomplished, for she departed only after she saw her children well settled. We are sure that all the angels & saints, specially our Heavenly Father, welcome her with all sincerity & candor in their Heavenly Kingdom. We ask & pray for her continued guidance, assistance, & companionship mentally & spiritually. We love you Mommy. Stay as sweet as you are. Your memories will always linger with us forever. Thank you for everything.

“ Within the family circle, she is my most beloved grandma and outside the family circle she was commonly known as "Tia Inday". I recall vividly according to my dad, my grandma during her prime was crowned and reigned as "Miss Babasit," a barrio in her hometown where "Our Lady of Manaoag" is honored and venerated by many pilgrims. I am convinced that she was then brimming with beauty and delight. Her immense love for us stands out prominently. We love you Grandma, and we are going to miss you. May God be with you... Till we meet again. God bless.

With love and prayers, Gigi Pasalo Hutchinson.
