

Mrs. Eleanor Silvia Brusco

April 1, 1931 - April 4, 2017

Eleanor Brusco passed away at her home on April 4th in the presence of her loving family; she was 86. Eleanor was born to Giovanni and Maria Carpena in San Francisco and eventually married Ansel Paul Brusco and together raised a family of their own. Although cooking was not her favorite activity, her loving nature and the patience she had for her children's friends made her the neighborhood mother and her home the gathering spot of everyone.

Mrs. Brusco is survived by her sister, Lena Cairo; her children, Diana Guisto-Graves, Lawrence Brusco, Catherine (Mark) Toland, Michael (Marian) Brusco, and Victoria (Anthony) Brusco-Meek; her grandchildren, Jacqueline, Jonathan, Felipe, Michael, Danielle, and Jesse; her great-grandchildren Devin, Brenden, Jareth, Mia and Giana . She is preceded in death by her husband, Ansel, and her brother, Pete Carpena.

Friends are invited to visit on Tue, April 11th from 4 to 9 and attend a Rosary Service at 7 at the Chapels of Valente Marini Perata & Co, 4840 Mission St, San Francisco. A Funeral Mass will be held at St. Elizabeth Church at Sommerset and Wayland Sts. in San Francisco at 10:30 on Wed, April 12th.

Mrs. Brusco will be laid to rest at Italian Cemetery in Colma. In the spirit of her generosity, please make a donation in Eleanor's name to a charity or cause of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Eleanor Silvia Brusco had a warm and loving spirit and none who met her can deny that. She was funny and lively and always had a great story to tell. I personally met her through her grandchild Jesse since he was friends with my own son. Since the first time we met I knew she was a very special and accepting person. We've shared a few Thanksgiving dinners with her family and we would always swap great stories over a plate of her delicious green jello she made. Words cannot convey the loss of such a great person and one who was dear to so many, but we offer our most heartfelt and sincere condolences to all of her family and all of her friends. She will be missed and she will be remembered as a kind and giving person. May she rest in peace.
