

Mrs. Emma Luz Lemus

May 29, 1921 - November 28, 2015

Beloved wife of Carlos A. Lemus. Beloved mother to Carolina Irene Rodehau, Dinah Arlene Osuna & Gina Lemus Hughes, and grandmother to Christina Michelle Rodehau. She traveled here as a young, strong, hard working woman from her home of San Salvador, El Salvador in the hopes of new opportunities, an honest life and always accompanied by her strong faith in God and for goodness. A person of strong family values, fairness, kindness, adventure, honesty & integrity. She had a strong respect for freedom in every sense. If you had the opportunity to have met her, you will know how blessed you are. God is kind. God blessed us with Emma.

"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

- Maya Angelou

Gina, Dinah and Caroline, my sincerest condolences on the loss of your Mom. She was a very kind and loving woman. Although it has been a number of years since I saw her, I still remember her well. I pray the Holy Spirit will console each of you and that you always have the good memories that you shared with your Mom. Hugs, Phyllis & Roberto Lemus

“ I would like to express my sincerest condolences to Emma's family

Momma my biggest joy along with meeting your daughter Caroline has been the love you extended to me through the many times we spoke

Your laughter and beautiful spirit will stay in my heart forever

I grieve along with your family by your passing but in my heart I feel secure that the gates to heaven above are already wide open and God Our Heavenly Father has his loving and welcoming arms ready to embrace you into your wonderful new life

My prayers and love will always be with you

I LOVE YOU MOMMA

“ My mother was the best mom in the world. She had a personality that everyone loved and she was warm and affectioned always. I will miss her so much she was a wonderful mother always looking for the best for her daughters. I am lucky to have been with a mother that was so supported and loving and strong. My strength comes from my mom and my affection is from her she will always be with me.
