

Ernest Garibaldi

October 8, 1923 - December 4, 2011

Ernest S. Garibaldi October 8, 1923 - December 4, 2011 Ernest S. Garibaldi was embraced by our Lord Jesus Christ into His kingdom of Heaven to join his parents, Ernesto and Maria and all others that went before him. He is survived by his loving wife, Eleanor, who was in his own words, "The love of his life and his angel sent from God." He is survived by many nieces and nephews that loved and adored him. Many Sundays were spent at his house watching the 49ers play/win, while Auntie Eleanor served everything your heart desired. He was a native of San Francisco and over the years, touched many lives with his caring, loving, and giving manner. All that knew him will always remember his sense of humor, spirit, and warm big heart. He served during WWII in the Navy and was very proud to do so. Ernie will be missed by all that knew him. He was a major part in motivating everyone to do better and was always around to give good sound advice. He is now in God's hands and will be forever in our hearts. Family and friends are invited to visit on Wednesday after 9:00AM and are invited to attend the funeral liturgy also on Wednesday at 10:30AM, all at the chapels of Valente Marini Perata & Co., 4840 Mission St., SF. Committal to follow at Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery in Colma. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to Hospice by the Bay, 1902 Van Ness Ave., 2nd Floor, SF, 94109, or to a charity of your choice.
