“ My love and sympathy go to my uncle Ezio, Billy, Gary, Debbie and Nick. I know my Aunt Ethyl was the center of their world, and that she will be greatly missed. I always wished I had my Aunt's beautiful blue eyes. It was like looking into a clear blue sky, like looking into the eyes of an angel. Now our angels are together once again. Etmaru. No pain, lots of love and happiness. All our Love, Denise and Gary

“ A very fond memory I have is when the Lanza's, Benoits, and Braccos would gather at Alma & Larry's for an afternoon of swimming and feasting on good food. All the cousins would enjoy the pool and the adults would be sitting in the shade or in the house just talking and laughing. I remember Ethel having an infectious laugh when she would hear someone say something funny. Those were such good times, and I believe Ethel enjoyed them too.
