

Mrs. Eva Delia Vellutini

June 25, 1917 - April 2, 2013

Eva Delia Vellutini, born June 25, 1917, is survived by her four children, Nancy A. Willis (Jim Willis), John L. Vellutini (Yolande Haskin), Joan C. Vellutini (Douglas V. Martino), and Paul C. Vellutini (Mary Wyand). She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Joseph D. Vellutini, her parents Chester H. Chase and Mary A. (Beaudriault) Chase, and her wonderful daughter-in-law, Joanne L. Vellutini. She is survived by her granddaughter, Jennifer C. Vellutini, and her four grandsons, Mark J. Vellutini, James R. Willis, Joseph P. Vellutini, and Nico A. Vellutini, and two great grandsons, Giovanni A. Vellutini and Mateo R. Vellutini. She leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and cousins back East and in California. She also leaves behind many wonderful friends and neighbors, with a special 'thank you' to Maria G. Costello, Ethel Silverstein, Fr. Paul Gawlowski of St. Paul of the Shipwreck Catholic Church, Pathways Hospice, and Kaiser Permanente. Weekends, Eva could be found playing Mexican train with company late into the evening hours, well beyond her bedtime. She loved gardening, reading, old movies, baking, and the family cats.

Eva was very proud of being a WAAC and WAC in World War II (from Jan. 1943 to Oct. 1945). She was stationed in New Guinea and in the Philippines where she met her future husband, Joseph Vellutini, who was in the Army. They later married and moved to San Francisco where on April 2, 2013 she passed away peacefully. Any donations can be made in her name to the honoring those women in military service.

Women's Memorial Foundation, Dept. 560, Washington, DC 20042-0560

A quiet memorial service will be held for family members and close friends on,
June 26th, 2013 at Pleasant Hill – Analy and O'Leary Cemetery in Sebastopol.

Cemetery Details

Pleasant Hills Memorial Park

1700 Pleasant Hill Road
Sebastapol, CA 95472