

Mrs. Giuseppina Silvestri

September 18, 1926 - September 22, 2015

Giuseppina (Rinaldi) Silvestri was born in Verbicaro, Cosenza, Italy on September 18, 1926. She was the devoted wife of Vittorio Silvestri for 66 years. The loving mother of Marie and Rosa and mother in-law of Stan, and the adored Nonna of Jason and Vanessa. She is survived by her brother, Vincenzo, in Verbicaro.

Giuseppina and Vittorio immigrated to America with 4 year old Marie in 1954 where they made their home in San Francisco. Giuseppina will be most remembered for her sweet, generous nature and wonderful homemade Italian cooking.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Cimino Care - Burlingame Villa for taking care of Giuseppina during her struggle with Alzheimer's.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests making a donation to the Alzheimer's Association in her memory.

“ Today I went to the funeral for a longtime family friend, commare Giuseppina Silvestri. It was very sad and made me melancholy. I started remembering all the fun and good times our families had all these years. The holidays, back for left overs the next day, the picnics, the birthdays, the wedding showers, the weddings, Rosa the flower girl in my wedding, the baby showers and all those fun, all that great food they would prepare . All these nice memories made feel grateful for good and dear friends we were lucky to have all these years. May these same memories give the family as much pleasure as they give me.
I know my Mom, Dad and commare Giuseppina are reminiscing right now in Heaven and having a wonderful time all over again. May they all rest in peace.
