“ *John,
At this moment I'm remembering the joking and cutting up, all the while never taking away from seriousness of urban job of Tattooing, which you loved to do. Say hello to Sandy. Love and miss you dearly. I'll be at ur service in spirit, I will have gotten out of the hospital. I'm blessed to have known you my friend.*

“ John, you are and were a wonderful, passionate, supportive guy. We had so many myriad experiences when we were kids. Though we lost touch, the years between us growing up hadn't diminished those good feelings. I'll always remember you as a great artist and a great person! My condolences to his Family. “ Son you have left us to be with those you loved so much. You are now enjoying your dad and mom, laughing at Grandma Bertha jokes, and Uncle Larry telling you how to get the biggest fish, and other loved ones who left before you. I will miss your smile and your hugs until we see each other loved you always.
