“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Sozzi. Several years ago, I would see him walking around the lake at McLaren Park and on several occasions he would walk with me. I couldn't keep up with him. :) He was a lovely person.

“ So sorry to hear about Lou. He was a friend of my parents for many years. Both Vi & Lou attended my moms annual St. Patricks Dinner attended by her friends and the group from the Sacred Heart class of 65! For which Vi & Lou belonged.

“ Dear Diane, Dan and Sozzi family,

So sorry for your loss. I will always remember your dad. He was such a nice guy. I used to see him all the time in front of the house when I lived 2 doors away in SF. My folks and yours were good friends and it seemed like just yesterday that they were our age now. I'm sure everyone greeted your dad in Heaven and asked him what took him so long. Now they are all together and probably playing Poker or Pedro. His soul will rest in peace and he will be rewarded for his good life on earth.

Sincerely,

Eva (Rinaldi) Espe
