

Mr. Luis Anibal Concha

August 25, 1936 - April 8, 2015

Whether he was called Luis, Louie, or Toto, he was larger than life and lived every day to its fullest. He came to the United States in 1956 from Arequipa, Peru, after graduating from the Francisco Bolognesi Military Academy, where he proceeded to become the head transmission mechanic at Van Ness Chrysler in San Francisco.

After a few years he changed direction, and became one of the premiere General Contractors in the Bay Area, specializing in health club construction. His company, ABC Panel Systems, which he built with his partner Mike Bugel, pioneered new technology for racquetball courts.

He was a member of the Ambassador Club in San Francisco, and the Royal Athletic Club in Burlingame, where he was an avid handball and racquetball player. He passed his love of the three-time world champion San Francisco Giants to his family. Survived by his three daughters; Maria and Anna Concha and Vivian DiSano (Ralph); his beloved grandson, Lucas Liu; and the love of his life, Kay. Also survived by his brothers and sister, Albert Concha (Rosalina); Pano Concha (Ana); Jim Portocarrero; Hilma Walker (Richard); and all his beautiful nieces and nephews.
