

Margarita Sc Torio

July 20, 1922 - March 16, 2015

Margarita Sc Torio was born July 20, 1922, passed away March 16, 2015 at the age of 92. Margarita was born in Lingayen, Pangasinan, Philippines. She will always be remembered for her genuine kindness, nurturing spirit and a very positive attitude. She lived a full and eventful life, giving her selfless generosity and deep love to her eight biological children, four stepchildren from her husband's first marriage, and a sibling and a cousin whose mothers died giving birth. She was a Homemaker, a businesswoman and became a politician in her community when her children had all grown up. She was at the same time a loyal and faithful "First Lady" to her husband Atty. Pablo Torio, Sr. who served as Provincial Auditor of Pangasinan (among other cities and provinces) and also became a politician thereafter. She and (deceased) husband Pablo, Sr. migrated to the US in 1983. She lived with her children and helped take care of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren in California, Florida, and Chicago. She will be terribly missed and will forever be loved!

Family, friends and acquaintances may visit on Friday March 20, 2015 starting 4:00 PM and are invited to attend the Evening Prayer Services, thereafter, at 7:00 PM in Chapel 1 of Valente Marini Perata & Co., 4840 Mission Street. The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday March 21, 2015 at 9:45AM at St. Finn Barr Church, where services will conclude.
