“ I have many fond memories made with Mary. I knew her all of my life. When I was a child I would go to her house after school to hang out with Debbie. My Mom was in a poker club with Mary. She was a great lady. I will always remember her. Every year in August, I would mail Mary a birthday card. She got a kick that I remembered to do that every year. It will seem odd not to do that anymore. My prayers to all of her family.

Mary was the Best. Always understanding, thoughtful and loving. The Best Mother anybody could ever have.

The gates of heaven are wide open waiting for her arrival. Ted will be waiting with open arms as they reunite in paradise as they watch over there family together.
