

Mary MacWilliam

July 2, 1917 - October 16, 2012

Mary I. MacWilliam July 2, 1917- October 16, 2012 Mary MacWilliam, 95, passed away peacefully October 16, 2012. Mary was born and raised in Hobart Mills, California and was a devoted daughter to her mother Maria as well as a loving sister to her brother Tommy. When Mary was a young woman, she moved to San Francisco and was a resident for over 50 years. Many of these years were spent in her charming apartment which overlooked Alamo Square. Mary was professionally accomplished and earned a doctorate degree in the field of Education. She enjoyed a forty-plus year career as the assistant director librarian at the San Francisco State University Library. Her colleagues remembered her as a "wonderful boss" and a "great friend". Mary was a unique woman who genuinely cared for each person she knew and came in contact with only a daily basis. Her kind, loving, and gentle spirit will be missed in this world. Friends are invited to attend a Memorial Mass on Wednesday, October 24, 2012 at 11:00AM at Old First Presbyterian Church, 1751 Sacramento St, SF 94109. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the charitable cause of your choice. Online condolences may be offered at www.vmpandco.com.
