Michael "Mike" Forest Travis

Born in Burlington, Iowa in 1947. Mike was a big man with a big heart, always working in the service of others. At age 14, he was the youngest Boy Scout in the state to earn the rank of Eagle Scout. Mike went on to serve in the United States Navy during the Viet Nam war and upon discharge joined the ranks of the San Francisco Police Department. He served as a SF Police officer for over 32 years, 22 of which were with the Bomb Squad. During his time on the force, Mike represented San Francisco's finest in the Police Olympics, competing against other police departments in the horseshoe competition. Mike was one of the original members of the SFPD Centurion football team and was a force to be reckoned with. He was also an avid crossword puzzle solver and loved working the land. He retired to Redding, California where he enjoyed the beautiful views from his deck and riding around on his tractor.
