“ To my San Francisco Cousins, the younger ones may not remember me, but I remember you. I'm your cousin Donna, Auntie Mary's daughter.

When I lost my mother 42 yrs ago, your dear Mother surprised me when I answered the door & there she stood with her lovely smile & huge caring heart... To this day, I'll always remember how she comforted me during the saddest time of my life... I was 16 yrs old & though she lived so far away & had 12 children of her own to care for, she still had so much Love & compassion to share that I will always remember the time she took for me...

My youngest daughter is a student at the Calif Culinary Academy in San Francisco & when she moved there last August, I was able to call your Mother & say hello. We weren't able to visit, but I'm so glad that I spoke to her.

*Our thoughts & prayers are with all of you & know that she'll always be with us, watching over us & our loved ones, along with my Mother & those whom we've lost recently & over the years...
God Bless you all,*

*Your cousins in San Diego,
Donna & dgtrs Ashley, Brittany & Shelly <3*

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. Wish I could have been at her memorial, but do to my current health conditions. . . I will always remember her as she welcomed anyone and everyone any of the family brought to the house for whatever reason. She was the "mom" of the neighborhood.

“ I didn't know Mama Nancy very well but, the first time I met her I was 15 and I was staying with my brother Alan during my Christmas vacation. I fell ill and she took very good care of me. I didn't see her again until one of the Dumlao family reunions and she again showed me such kindness. I'm sorry for the loss of your mother. Diana Dumlao daughter of Al Dumlao

Dear Nancy that's what she was to me and all the people that Met her at the salon. Always a smile on her face and and so happy to meet and greet all she met. Saturdays were never the same when Nancy stopped coming in. But we always talked and would send cards. Nancy was so thoughtful and caring. I am so sorry for your loss of your Mom. She will be missed .I will always Think of her when I see anything Purple her favorite color. Dear Nancy you'll be in our Hearts forever. Love Renée
