

Mrs. Nicanora Bunagan Jose

January 1, 1928 - September 8, 2015

Nicanora Bunagan Jose, aged 87, died peacefully on Tuesday, September 8, 2015 at Generation Healthcare St. Francis Rehabilitation Home, after a long struggle with her illness. Nicanora was born on January 1, 1928 in Tuguegarao, Cagayan, Philippines.

In 1945, Nicanora married the love of her life, SSgt. Gervacio Quinagoran Jose, and they moved from the Philippines to San Francisco, CA after World War II in 1948. Nicanora was a stay-at-home mom who took care of six children.

In addition to raising their six children, Nicanora was a member of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church for 43 years, and was an active volunteer in church related activities. She loved music, bingo, dancing, her pets - Palamino, Genie and Charito the bird, and enjoying time with her family and friends.

Nicanora was predeceased by her husband, Gervacio Quinagoran Jose, and her eldest son Genaro Bunagan Jose.

Nicanora is survived by her daughters Gertrude B. Jose and Josephine B. Jose-Holleman and her husband Eddie Holleman; sons Anthony B. Jose and his wife Nellie S. Jose of Suisun City, CA, Ricardo B. Jose and his wife Lauren A. Jose of Concord, CA and James B. Jose and his wife Shelley Doran-Jose of Daly City, CA; grandchildren Anthony John Jose, Christina Ann Jose, Mario Dominic Jose, Michael Doran and Mitchell Doran; great grandson Alonso Leonardo Jose and a number of other relatives and close friends. She was the loving daughter of Vicente Bunagan and Flora Bassig-Bunagan.

The family wishes to thank the doctors and staff at St. Francis Convalescent Home for the years spent taking care of Nicanora.
