“ My Dad is my hero. He was so humble yet always loved life. He especially loved his accordion music and said to me never stop doing your music. I will think of him each day because of his special way he took care of his beautiful wife my mom and his two wonderful sons my brothers. Forever I will have the great memories of his good cooking too and his father and daughter nights in high school. Always a joke to leave them laughing he said as a salesman so I learned a lot from him . I will see him in heaven with Jesus one day as he was truly a good Christian man who enjoyed his life
