“ Mom, You have been a major, precious person in my life. You have watched me grow since I was nine years old. You knew that I loved the Lopez & extended Family and Mary and I were best friends (including Yolanda - The Three Musketeers"...poor Max had to see us so much lol)! Out of the three Mom's you were the strictest but oh so sweet! I loved seeing you so much especially in our latter/older years (here comes my tears Mom) when you would just be watching us all and just smiling. I saw your different facials of happy, mad, sad and proud! In our latter years you just sat happy to see all our children/grandchildren and how they loved you as a Grandmother. Ryelle (grandson) cried so much when he found out that you went to heaven...all my children/grandchildren know you as "Lola" or "Grandma"! I am going to miss your sweetest smile and look forward to the future when I get to see you again. I will miss you so much in the mean time! Please say Hi to God for me! I love you so much!
