

Ramona Stetz

June 9, 1941 - June 9, 1941

Ramona L. Stetz

June 9, 1941 - June 20, 2011

A resident of San Bruno, Ramona Stetz passed away peacefully on Monday evening, June 20, 2011. Born on June 9, 1941, in Albany, CA, she was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She will always be remembered by her husband David; her children Manuel Andersen, Julia Bonfiglio, Cheryl Gomez, and Deborah Stanley; her grandchildren Tayler, Marissa and Nicole.

She spent 29 years as a bank teller at the Excelsior Branch of Bank of America in San Francisco, where she enjoyed many friends from the neighborhood and built many special relationships with her co-workers. Everyone who was fortunate to know Ramona will remember what a very special person she was; she was a true friend to all.

Visitation will be held on Sunday, June 26, 2011 at Valente Marini Perata & Co., 4840 Mission St., San Francisco, CA from 4pm to 8pm. A Funeral Service will be held on Monday, June, 27 at 11:00 a.m. at The Italian Cemetery, 540 F Street, Colma CA. A reception will follow at the home of Julia and Sebastian Bonfiglio.

Ramona would have preferred a donation be made to Children's Eye

Foundation (childrenseyefoundation.org) or charity of your choice in lieu of flowers.

“ One year ago tonight we found out our loving mother, wife & friend had left all of us. It has been a very difficult year, but we have made it without her being next to us for our Birthdays and Holdiays. She would be proud of us that we continue our lives and keep her with us in our hearts. I will always love you mom II.

“ We will truly miss Ramona's laughter and good nature. She always had something positive to say.
She was one great person who will be sorely missed.
God Bless,
