“ Stafford:

After all you did to ease the pain and suffering for Remie now her troubles are over completely. She is now with the Divine Creator who freed Remie from all her ailments. Because your faith is so strong, God could not have picked a better companion for Remie.

But we do not call these shots. It is He who put this entire scheme together who makes all the most important decisions for us. It is also He who brought you two together and placed her in your capable hands so you could take care of her worldly needs. You also gave Remie a very good send off.

*May the angels lead Remie into Paradise.
May the martyrs receive Remie at her coming and take her to Jerusalem, the Holy City.
May the Choir of Angels receive Remie, and may she, with the once poor Lazarus, have rest everlasting. Amen.*
