“ I am Robert and Patricia's oldest daughter Joan. Papa, I will always miss you. When you died, part of me died too. As you said goodbye to me at your deathbed, I saw a light shining from your beautiful face. I will always love and cherish you. God blessed me for giving you as my father.

I couldn't make it to the services. But I was a long-time friend and admirer of Bob Lurati. We somehow wound up working at some of the same places down through the years, and we were at Cal together. The family should know, if you didn't already, he was a master of his craft, a great pal and an extremely decent human being.

All the best to Pat and the family.
