“ Fred and I were so sad to hear about Susans passing. She was such a down to earth, natural, caring, and kind person. She was a wonderful wife, and she cared so deeply about her daughters and her grandchildren. She was a very giving person and very down to earth. We would like to leave you with a wonderful poem that has been a great help to Peggy and Fred after a dear one has passed:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints of snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the soft star that shines at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there, I did not die. Warmly, Peggy and Fred Dias*
