

Mrs. Violeta A. Abad

September 19, 1938 - August 20, 2014

Violeta Agpoon Abad died in her family home on August 20, 2014. Violeta was surrounded by her family as she rested in peace after a long struggle with cancer. She was 75.

Violeta was the loving wife to Angelo Abad and celebrated 52 years of marriage together. She was the devoted mother of two children, Tessie and Ronald (Melissa) Abad. She was the cherished grandmother to her four grandchildren: Paul, Karena, R.J. and Alyssa Jules.

She was born Violeta Agpoon at Fort Stotsenburg in the Philippines and moved to San Francisco as a young girl after completing a degree in Psychology. San Francisco is where she met and married, Angelo, in 1961. She is one of 12 siblings and was a cherished sister and Aunt to her nieces and nephews. Violeta had a career as a dental assistant and was an active officer of her social club, the United Pangasinanes of America. She lived a full life surrounded by her large extended family and network of friends. She loved her family, her friends, her travels, and the experiences life had to offer.

Friends may visit after 5PM on Saturday, August 23 and 9AM on Sunday, August 24 and are invited to attend a Vigil Service also on Sunday at 4PM all at the chapels of Valente Marini Perata and Co., 4840 Mission St., SF. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Monday, August 25 at 9:30AM at Church

“ To Family and Friends,
I was very sorry to hear about your loss. I know you will miss her dearly as well as cherish the many memories. It is times like these that we need comfort and support, and I look to God's Word for both. I find scriptures such as 2Corinthians 1:3,4 which shows how the "God of all comfort" will give you the courage and the strength to cope. Psalms 55:22 assures us of God's love by encouraging us to throw all of our burdens on him. Acts 24:15 tells us of how Jesus will resurrect our dear loved ones, and finally, Revelation 21:4 says that soon "death will be no more". (jw.org)
I hope these scriptures help you as they have for me. My thoughts and prayers will be with you in this most difficult time.
